Occultism is the new book of the Shadows of Esteren series. Started in 2012, spanning about 120 pages, this supplement is a “thema.” Each thema explores one of the strong themes of the universe. After The Monastery of Tuath, centered on the order of the monks of the Temple, Occultism details professions related to esotericism and mysticism. It includes many game aids and additional rules, as well as a long scenario, “A Tidy Room.”

This thema comes with a music album, Rise. In development for several years, Rise is the third album in the universe of Shadows, following Of Men and Obscurities and Dearth. The two composers of Rise have accomplished a hybrid work of art, sometimes reminiscent of Ennio Morricone, but flirting with darker, more electric tones similar to Radiohead. It numbers fifteen songs.
